LOCAL POLOISTS LOSE TO THE AIKEN TIGERS

Washington Team Is Defeated in One Sided Game by 15 to 10 3-4

Racing up from behind a ten-point lead, the Aiken Tigers yesterday took a one-sided game from Washington the Potomac Park polo field by score of 15 to 103-4.

Washington started out with an advantage of eight points, being handaritage of eight points, being at the first period by Kent Legare and Ayers. 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 000 one in the fourth period by Capt. N. D. Except for the work of four menths game was not particularly interesting, although the largest gallery of the tournament turned out for a perfect day. Kent Legare not only made his first goal in a tournament match, and eight scores from the field, playing his sugual score hand previously made in a tournament match, and eight scores from the field, playing his sugual score hand previously made in a tournament match, and eight scores from the field, playing his sugual score hand previously made in a tournament match, and eight scores from the field, playing his sugual score hand previously made in a tournament match, and eight scores from the field, playing his sugual score hand previously made in a tournament match, and eight scores from the field, eight score hand previously made in the field, eight score hand previously made in the field, eight score hand previously made in the field, eight score han

HUB CITY COLLEGE IS BEATEN BY GEORGETOWN

Hilltoppers Nose Out Boston Nine in Overtime Game by 12 to 11 Score.

The Georgetswn University baseball team made it two straight wins yeater-day afternoon by taking the long end of a lit-of-li score from the Boston College nine. From the first inning to the last, errors together with timely bingles swelled the score and when the final inning, the tenth, came no less than thirteen "boots" had been made, the local team being the chief offenders with nine errors to its credit.

EMERY WILL PILOT THE STEWARD CLUB

Ernest W. Emery, president of the athletic association at Steward's Business College, has assumed the management of the baseball team until the students elect a successor to C. Ridgway Taylor, the former manager, who has left the city to enter the Geological Survey Service. Emery has written to several managers of schoolastic teams asking for games during the month of May. Among those with whom he expects to schedule are: St. John's College, Annapolis (Reserves), M. A. C. Reserves, Gallaudet Reserves, Frederick High School and Business High School. The college team is booked. The college team is booked to Monday they will journey to Alexandria to play the Alexandria High School team.

FRANK MORAN FIGURES ON TRYING JACK DILLON

New York, April 20.—Frank Moran is today holding out for a percentage privilege in addition to a $30,000 flat guarantee offered him to take on Jack Dilion in a ten-round bout in New York in the late apring or early summer. Tom O'Rourke and John Wiesemantie are the promoters fighting for the mill. O'Rourke would like to stage it July 4. Ike Dorgan, Moran's manager, is inclined toward an earlier date, falling in with Weisemantie's idea of a Decoration Day scrap at Ebbets Field. Each of the promoters has offered $20,000.
